

Prince of Arcot's I-Day message

Chennai, Aug 14: In his Independence Day message, the Prince of Arcot, Nawab Mohammed Abdul Ali, said though we celebrate 75th year of India's Independence, we must at least now realise that democracy and social justice are not just inter-linked, but also inter-dependent. It is common knowledge that crores of our population are living below poverty line, without proper food, machinery of our great secular country, India, would have failed in its duty.

Let us together try to meet the aspiration of millions of men and women for a better world, for a world of harmony and co-existence, and enter the 21st century, as a glowing example of national integrity, communal amity and unity in diversity, the Prince added.

Indian Bank 117th Foundation Day begins with curtain raiser event

Chennai, Aug 14: Indian Bank, a beacon of trust and service, commemorates its 117th year of excellence with a grand celebration that began yesterday with a curtain-raiser event at its corporate office. The event was organised as a precursor to the bank's foundation day on August 15, 2023. The event which was inaugurated by Managing Director & CEO, Shri. S L Jain resonated with the spirit of unity, culture, and patriotism.

The curtain raiser event featured a captivating array of cultural performances, showcasing diverse folk dance forms from around the world. Staff members came together to showcase their talents, captivating the audience with mesmerizing performances, including a spellbinding magic show and an energetic claphthon. Underlining its commitment to the nation's pride, Indian Bank proudly launched the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign, a tribute to the Government of India's initiative. The campaign aims to infuse every household with the essence of the tricolor, celebrating the country's heritage and unity. In a stirring address, S L Jain, MD & CEO, encapsulated the significance of the 117th Foundation Day, highlighting the bank's unwavering dedication to its customers and its vision for the future. He spoke passionately about the "Meri Matti Mera Desh" campaign, reinforcing the bank's deep-rooted connection with the land and its people. Furthermore, the MD passionately emphasized that August 2023 stands as the Anchor

Month for Indian Bank's exuberant Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav celebrations, enhancing the significance of the 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign as an emblem of shared values and patriotism.

'PPL India's legal standing vindicated

Chennai, Aug 14: The Delhi High Court has firmly stood in favor of PPL India, the legitimate owner of on-ground public performance rights for Sound Recordings, in a case filed against Canvas Communication, a Delhi based event management company, which attempted to evade obtaining a valid license from PPL India, relying on questionable advisories from Cinefil Producers Performance Limited (Copyright Society registered for Cinematograph Films only) and the DJ Light and Sound Association, a private body based in Chandigarh.

copyright society and hence not authorised to grant licenses for public performance of sound recordings. However, the Delhi High Court, through its order dated 17th December 2021, had categorically reaffirmed PPL India's authority to issue licenses for sound recordings, unbound by any restrictions under Section 33 of the Copyright Act, and had restrained Canvas Communication from using PPL India's sound recordings without a license. The Hon'ble Court had also clarified that "there is an independent copyright in a sound recording, distinct from the copyright in a cinematographic work or other work in which the sound recording may be included."

Canvas Communication had previously contested PPL India's legal status, arguing that it was not a registered

Chennai, Aug 14: The Indian Institute of Technology, Bombay (IITB) has launched the 2023-24 edition of the coveted e-Yantra Robotics Competition (eYRC 2023-24), to upskill students through 'Project Based Learning'. The annual competition takes participants through a 6-month long session using a 'learn by doing' approach and a rigorous collaborative schedule. The theme for this year's edition is 'The Space Beyond'. There are various hardware-based themes with free robotic kits for select participants. The competition comprises two stages: in the first stage, students are trained using simulators, while the second stage involves testing participants on problem-solving tasks designed as "themes," utilizing real hardware. Students can register as a team of two to four members, from any year and branch of the same institute. The broader theme this year relates to outer space and challenges participants to develop innovative solutions for building Space related Applications. Prof. Kavi Arya, the Principal Investigator of e-Yantra believes in changing the attitude of students from "knowledge consumers" to "knowledge creators." He said, "e-Yantra has always strived to engage young minds in novel entrepreneurial endeavours that goes beyond traditional modes of textbook learning. Our goal is to create "student innovators for local disruption."
